

David M. Thomas

Of Counsel, Chair, Government Relations Practice Group
dthomas@donovanhatem.com
617-406-4531 direct
617-406-4501 fax

Experience

David M. Thomas's practice includes providing legal advice and technical guidance to clients in their relationships with local, state and federal government entities, particularly in the areas of government regulations, land use, procurement and contracting, Title V and related environmental matters, public relations, marketing and project management.

Dave has extensive litigation experience in the areas of domestic relations, family law, probate law, and criminal law, concentrating in state criminal defense practice. He also appears before state administrative agencies including MCAD, ABCC, Labor Relations Commission, and the State Ethics Commission. In addition, Dave serves as Special Counsel to the Town of Hanson. He has also served as Town Counsel to both the towns of Norton and Ashland.

Admitted to Practice

- Massachusetts
- United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts
- United States Court of Appeals, First Circuit

Business and Professional Associations

- Massachusetts Bar Association
- Norfolk County Bar Association
- Quincy Bar Association

Education

- Suffolk University Law School (J.D., 1977)
- Ohio Wesleyan University (B.A., Political Science, 1974)

Continued

(David Thomas continued)

Articles and Publications

- Co-author and chapter contributor Alcohol Beverages Control Commission, in the 1996 Edition of Massachusetts Procedure Handbook
- Co-author and chapter contributor Massachusetts Workers Compensation, in the 1996 Edition of Massachusetts Procedure Handbook

Additional Information

- Massachusetts "Super Lawyer," Boston Magazine (November 2004/Government Relations)
- Commissioned a Kentucky Colonel (November 1990)
- Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Pride in Performance Award (1986)